

Friday, May 23

2-6pm Registration (Promenade)
6:30pm Wine and Cheese (Lakeview)
Book display (Promenade)

Saturday, May 24

8:10 – 8:25am Welcome (Medallion)

8:30-10:05am Session A

Session I. Representations of Running (Gold)

Moderator: Megan Popovic, University of Western Ontario

8:30-8:50

Matthew Llewellyn, Penn State University

“ ‘Viva l’ Italia! Viva l’ Italia!’ Dorando Pietri and the North American Professional Marathon Craze 1908-1910”

8:50-9:10

Daniel Nathan, Skidmore College

“ ‘The Nonpareil, The Runner of the Ages’: Paavo Nurmi and the American Tour of 1925, Part II”

9:10-9:30

Christine O’Bonsawin, University of Victoria

“Unity within the Confederacy: A Return to the Scared Running Traditions of the Wabanaki People”

9:30-9:45

Commentator: Douglas Brown, University of Calgary

9:45-10:05am

Discussion

Session II. Controlling Female Sport Participation (Silver)

Moderator: Annette Hofmann, Pädagogische Hochschule Ludwigsburg

8:30-8:50

Mary Louise Adams, Queen’s University

“Gender segregation in sport: Lessons from the history of figure skating”

8:50-9:10

Sarah Teetzel, University of Western Ontario, and Charlene Weaving, St. Francis Xavier University

“Ladies First: Controlling Canadian Olympic Women Athletes through Chaperoning”

9:10-9:30

Amanda Schweinbenz, Laurentian University

“Little Girls in Pretty Shells: The Introduction of Lightweight Women’s Events to the Competitive International Rowing Program”

9:30-10:05

Discussion

Session III. Writing the History of East Asia (Bronze)

Moderator: Lars Dzikus, University of Tennessee

8:30-8:50

Nick Aplin, Nanyang Technological University

“Sport as Play and Amusement in the Settlement of Singapore: 1819-1867”

8:50-9:10

Charles Little, London Metropolitan University

“Towards a History of Sport in South East Asia”

9:10-9:30

Xiaowei Yu, University of Windsor

“Revolution, Evolution, and Separation: A Brief Review of the Development of Modern Sports and the Olympic Movement in China, 1840s to 1970s”

9:30-9:50

Ying Wushanley, Millersville University

“Waltzing on Ice: Lake Placid, the Carter Doctrine, and China’s Return to the Olympics”

9:50-10:05

Discussion

Session IV. Scorched by Scandal: The IOC and the Salt Lake City Olympic Bid Scandal (Lakeview)

Moderator: Thomas Hunt, University of Texas at Austin

8:30-8:50

Scott G. Martyn, University of Windsor
“The Legacy of Juan Antonio Samaranch: A Critical Analysis of the IOC’s Seventh President and his Impact on the Modern Olympic Movement”

8:50-9:10

Stephen R. Wenn, Wilfrid Laurier University
“Frozen in Time: Lausanne and the 108th IOC Extraordinary Session, March, 1999”

9:10-9:30

Stephanie M. W. Eckert, University of Windsor
“Beyond ‘Window Dressing’: The Rise and Work of the IOC Ethics Commission”

9:30-9:50

Robert K. Barney, University of Western Ontario
“Scandalous Proceedings: The United States Department of Justice vs. Tom Welch and David Johnson, Engineers of Salt Lake Olympic Bid Largesse”

9:50-10:05

Discussion

10:05-10:20am Coffee Break (Promenade)

10:20-11:55am Session B

Session V. Organizing Ethnic Sport (Gold)

Moderator: Susan Rayl, SUNY Cortland

10:20-10:40

Bryan Bracey, University of Maryland
“Only a Game?: Sport and the Black College”

10:40-11:00

Michael Heine, University of Manitoba
“ ‘Yet Another Instrument of Some Sort:’ UNESCO's Draft Charter on Traditional Games and Sports”

11:00- 11:20

Jordan Koch, University of Alberta
“From the Field to the Rink: Aboriginal Perspectives on Box Lacrosse in the 1930s”

11:20- 11:40

Daniel Taradash, University of Iowa
“Many of them had their dreams: Basketball on the Navajo Reservation, 1950s-1970s”

11:40-11:55

Discussion

Session VI. Combat Sports Past and Present (Silver)

Moderator: Thierry Terret, CRIS, University of Lyon

10:20-10:40

Bettina Kratzmueller

“pugiles catervarii, Latini et Graeci – some Comments on the Boxing Culture of Roman Times”

10:40-11:00

Richard Kimball, Brigham Young University

“Who Killed Benny Paret?”

11:00-11:20

Tanguy Philippe, Université Rennes 2, France

“Gouren: When Wrestling Steps Down The Ring”

11:20-11:35

Commentator: Tom Jable, William Paterson University of New Jersey

11:35-11:55

Discussion

Session VII. Sport History and the Public (Bronze)

Moderator: Rita Liberti, California State University, East Bay

10:20-10:40

Linda Borish, Western Michigan University

“Doing Sport History, Documentary Film, and Public Scholarship: Executive Producing, Funding, Researching and Writing in Jewish Women in American Sport, Settlement Houses to the Olympics”

10:40-11:00

Nancy Bouchier and Ken Cruikshank, McMaster University

“ ‘While it’s not exactly Ken Burns, it’s not far off.’ Reflections on Creating Critical Sport History for Local Students (and Others) - The People and the Bay documentary project”

11:00-11:20

Jackie Esposito, Pennsylvania State University

“JoePa: Documenting a Living Legend -- An Archivist's Perspective”

11:20-11:40

Wanda Wakefield, SUNY- Brockport

“Doing and Studying Sport from the Inside: A Luge Official Observes the Sport”

11:40-11:55

Discussion

Session VIII. Choices and Consequences: Communities and Sports Infrastructure (Lakeview)

Moderator: Mel Adelman, The Ohio State University

10:20-10:40

Philip Suchma, Lehman College,

“If They’d Built It...? Stadium Dreams and Rust Belt Reality for the Industrial City”

10:40-11:00

Robert Trumpbour, Pennsylvania State University, Altoona

“Activism and Minority Involvement in the Construction of Pittsburgh’s Three Rivers Stadium”

11:00-11:15

Commentator: Mark Dyreson, Pennsylvania State University

11:15-11:55

Discussion

Noon-1pm

Lunch (Medallion)

1-2pm

Seward C. Staley Address – Jan Todd, University of Texas at Austin (Medallion)

2:10-3:45pm

Session C

Session IX. Around the Racetrack (Gold)

Moderator: Alison Wrynn, California State University, Long Beach

2:10- 2:30

Paul Verrette, Director of Racing, Plainridge Racecourse, Lee, NH

“Harness Racing’s Forgotten Milestone: Lou Dillon and the First Two Minute Trot”

2:30-2:50

Rick Knott, The University of Pittsburgh – Bradford

“Race to the Death: A Historic Examination of Tragedy in Auto Racing”

2:50-3:10

Daniel Simone, University of Florida, Gainesville

“Drops in the Bucket? How Auto Racing Survived the Fuel Shortages of the 1970s”

3:10-3:30

Darcy Plymire, Ithaca College

“The Great American Tragedy: Production of Cultural Myth in the 24 Hours Following the Death of Dale Earnhardt”

3:30-3:45

Discussion

Session X. Representations of Aquatic Sports (Silver)

Moderator: Charles Little, London Metropolitan University

2:10-2:30

John Wong, Washington State University

“The Unbearable Lightness of Being Black: Race, Class, and Vancouver’s First Lifeguard”

2:30-2:50

Bob Barnett, Marshall University

“Adolph Kiefer: An Insiders View of the 1936 Olympic Swimming”

2:50-3:10

Commentator: David Barney, Albuquerque Academy

3:10-3:45

Discussion

Session XI. Methods (Bronze)

Moderator: Gary Osmond, The University of Queensland

2:10-2:30

Susan Bandy, The Ohio State University

“Blurring Boundaries, Crossing Borders, and Shifting Paradigms: Embracing Transdisciplinarity in Sports Studies”

2:30-2:50

Susan Birrell, University of Iowa

“Branding Mt. Everest: Narrative Production and Control in the 1920s British Everest Climbs”

2:50-3:10

Marion Stell, University of Queensland

“Sporting Landscapes in the Sunshine State – an Australian Perspective”

3:10-3:30

Natalie Szudy, University of Western Ontario

“Ghosts Stories: Accounting for the Silences in Narrative Inquiry”

3:30-3:45

Discussion

Session XII. Women’s Organized Sport (Lakeview)

Moderator: Wanda Wakefield, SUNY Brockport

2:10-2:30

Elizabeth Gregg, Indiana University

“A History of Women’s Intercollegiate Athletics at Indiana University: 1965-2001. A Historical Case Study”

2:30-2:50

Dara Lundregan, Ohio State University

“Recent Developments in Collegiate Women’s Lacrosse: The Transition from a Girls Game to Elite Sport”

2:50-3:10

Ashley McGhee, University of British Columbia

“The Canadian Women’s National Program: Acknowledging sport history”

3:10-3:25

Commentator: Laura Chase, Cal Poly, Pomona

3:25-3:45

Discussion

3:45-4:00pm Coffee Break (Promenade)

4:00-5:35pm Session D

Session XIII. Twentieth Century American Sport and Spectacle (Gold)

Moderator: Christine O’Bonsawin, University of Victoria

4:00-4:20

Ari de Wilde, The Ohio State University
“Antecedents to Failure: Entrepreneurs, the Great Depression and Six-Day Bicycle Racing, 1928-1932: An Interpretation”

4:20-4:40

Robert Dunkelberger, Bloomsburg University
“Pageantry, Spectacle and Giant Pumpkins: Competition and Culture at the Bloomsburg Fair, 1890-1950”

4:40-5:00

Robert Pruter, Lewis University
“Chicago-New York Intersectional High School Speed Skating Contests in the 1920s: Civic Boosterism and Chicago’s Image in the Golden Age of Sports”

5:00-5:20

Jim Nendel, Penn State University, Altoona
“The Manchester Allstars 1987 Bud Bowl Team: Success and Failure on the Gridiron in the United Kingdom”

5:20-5:35

Discussion

Session XIV. Returning to Class: Leisure, Sport and Class Relations on the ‘Industrial Frontier’ (Silver)

Moderator: Tina Parratt, University of Iowa

4:00-4:20

Colin Howell, Saint Mary’s University
“Returning to Class: Blending Discursive and Materialist Approaches to Sport History”

4:20-4:40

Daryl Leeworthy, Saint Mary’s University
“‘Hankering after the Black Ball;’ Rugby, Religion, and Class on the Industrial Frontier: Cape Breton and South Wales, 1880 – 1914”

4:40-5:00

Alan Metcalfe, University of Windsor
“Sport and Class: A Case Study of the Miners of East Northumberland”

5:00-5:20

Greggory M. Ross, Saint Mary’s University
“Boxing and the Class Question: Nova Scotia and the Northeastern Borderlands in the ‘Dirty Thirties’”

5:20-5:35

Discussion

Session XV. Sources (Bronze)

Moderator: Malcolm MacLean, The University of Gloucestershire

4:00-4:20

Mike Huggins, University of Cumbria
“The Sporting Gaze: Towards a Visual Turn in Sports History”

4:20-4:40

Margaret Groeneveld, Universita Bocconi
“Sports Pages, Scissors, Glue and an Upside Down Phonebook: a material culture reading of English Rugby League fan scrapbooks, 1900-1980”

4:40-5:00

Jennifer Sterling, University of Maryland
“Halls of Fame: Exhibiting Champions at the Smithsonian National Portrait Gallery”

5:00-5:35

Discussion

Session XVI. Gender and the Construction of the Female Body (Lakeview)

Moderator: Carly Adams, University of Lethbridge

4:00-4:20

Patricia Vertinsky, University of British Columbia
“Geographies of medical understanding in the history of the body: Western biomedicine and Chinese traditional medicine in relation to exercise for aging women”

4:20-4:40

Alison Wrynn, California State University, Long Beach
“Women Need Not Apply? Gender and the Therapeutic Uses of Exercise”

4:40-5:00

Geoffrey Bardwell, University of Western Ontario
“The Regulation of Sexed Bodies in Women’s Elite Sport”

5:00-5:20

Jessica Chin, University of Maryland
“Physical culture, consumption and communism: Ideological battles of the female body in Ceaușescu’s Romania, 1971-1989”

5:20-5:35

Discussion

6:30pm - NASSH Reception – Lake Placid Winter Olympic Games Museum

Sunday, May 25

8:30-10:05am

Session E

Session XVII. A Revolution in Modern Notions of Race and Nationhood? Three Interpretations of the Meanings of the 1928 Olympic Marathon (Gold)

Moderator: Wayne Wilson, LA84, Los Angeles

8:30-8:50

Thierry Terret and Anne Roger, CRIS, University of Lyon

“Managing Colonial Contradictions: French Receptions of Boughera El Ouafi’s 1928 Olympic Victory”

8:50-9:10

Cesar Torres, State University of New York Brockport

“A Golden Second Place: Manuel Plaza in South America”

9:10-9:30

Mark Dyreson, Pennsylvania State University

“Two North American Visions: Interpreting Boughera El Ouafi in the U.S. and Mexico”

9:30-9:45

Commentator: Allen Guttmann, Amherst College

9:45-10:05

Discussion

Session XVIII. Masculinity Matters (Silver)

Moderator: Jan Todd, University of Texas at Austin

8:30-8:50

Paul DeLoca, University of North Carolina, Greensboro

“An Aversion to Frivolity: W.B. Curtis, Nadine Turchin, John Babcock and the Athleticism of War, 1861-1865”

8:50-9:10

John Fair, Georgia College

“The Strongmen of Ohio”

9:10-9:30

Gerald Gems, North Central College
“Sport and the Historical Struggle over Parallel Paths to Masculinity”

9:30-9:50

Pellom McDaniels, University of Missouri- Kansas City
“The Black Prince: Isaac Murphy and the Ideology of Respectability”

9:50-10:05

Discussion

Session XIX. Sport and Imperial Projects (Bronze)

Moderator: Susan Bandy, The Ohio State University

8:30-8:50

Tina Parratt, University of Iowa
“Chasing the Wild Deer and Following the Roe: Hunting in the Culture of the Scottish Highlands”.

8:50-9:10

Gabe Logan, Northern Michigan University
“Pilgrims’ Progress in Chicago, 1905-1911”

9:10-9:30

Steven Pope, University of Lincoln
“Imperial Rivalries: American-British Discourses on Empire and Davis Cup Competitions, 1900-1950”

9:30-9:50

Damion Thomas, University of Maryland
“‘Spreading the Gospel of Basketball’: The State Department and the Harlem Globetrotters, 1945-1954”

9:50-10:05

Discussion

Session XX. Baseball and Identity (Lakeview)

Moderator: Jim Odenkirk

8:30-8:50

James Brunson, Northern Illinois University

“ ‘Fifteenth-Amendment Club-Slingers’: Colored Base Ball and the St. Louis Sporting Fraternity, 1875-1877”

8:50-9:10

Craig Greenham, University of Western Ontario

“On the Battlefield: Canadian Soldiers and Baseball During the Great War”

9:10-9:30

Bang-Chool Kim and Jae-Chul Seo, Seoul National University, Korea

“An Analysis of Korean Professional Baseball in the 1980s from Leisure and Cultural Perspectives”

9:30-9:45

Commentator: Michael Lomax, University of Iowa

9:45-10:05

Discussion

10:05-10:20

Coffee Break (Promenade)

10:20-11:55am

Session F

Session XXI. Winter Sports: Various Aspects of Skiing and Mountaineering in Europe and North America (Gold)

Moderator: Larry Gerlach, University of Utah

10:20-10:40

E. John B. Allen

“The Sport of Ski Mountaineering: Question of Legitimacy, c. 1880 – 1914”

10:40-11:00

Dylan Esson, University of California, Berkeley

“Warming Up to Winter: The Creation of Lake Placid, New York, as a Winter Leisure Resort”

11:00-11:20

Annette Hofmann, Pädagogische Hochschule Ludwigsburg

“A Challenge to the Last Male Bastion in Winter Sports: Women’s Struggle for a Breakthrough in Ski Jumping”

11:20-11:35

Commentator: Patricia Vertinsky, University of British Columbia

11:35-11:55

Discussion

Session XXII. Heroes, Crisis, and Identity (Silver)

Moderator: John Wong, Washington State University

10:20-10:40

Gregg Twietmeyer, Marshall University

“A Theology of Inferiority: Is Christianity the Source of Kinesiology’s second class status in the Academy?”

10:40-11:00

Lindsay Krasnoff, Graduate Center, CUNY

“Dissecting the French Sports Crisis of the 1960s”

11:00-11:20

Tim Elcombe, Wilfred Laurier University

“Reflections on the Summit Series’ 75th Anniversary: ‘Moral Spectacles’ and the Making and Re-making of Canada’s National Identity”

11:20-11:40

Zachary Jack, North Central College

“Paper Lions in the Gilded and Golden Age: Liminality in Pioneering Participatory Sportswriting”

11:40-11:55

Discussion

Session XXIII. Epistemology, Ontology, & Methodology (Bronze)

Moderator: Tara Magdalinski, University College Dublin

10:20-10:40

Allen Guttmann, Amherst College

“Researching the Olympics: What the Acknowledgments don’t Acknowledge”

10:40-11:00

Jennifer Harges, The Ohio State University

“Writing the Story in History: Reconstructing Sport History through a Theoretical Analysis of Postmodern Discourse”

11:00-11:20

Malcolm MacLean, The University of Gloucestershire

“Narrating Native American Athletes: The Poetics of Mose YellowHorse”

11:20-11:40

Toby Rider, University of Western Ontario

“Further thoughts on objectivity in Sport history”

11:40-11:55

Discussion

Session XXIV. Issues in Early American Intercollegiate Football (Lakeview)

Moderator: Kim Beckwith, University of Texas at Austin

10:20-10:40

Andy Doyle, Winthrop University

“Southern Progressivism and the Ascendancy of Football Programs at State Universities, 1913-1917”

10:40-11:00

Douglas Hochstetler, Penn State University, Lehigh Valley

“Taking the High Road: The Role of Romeyn Berry as Graduate Manager at Cornell, 1919-1935”

11:00-11:20

Rob Hardin and Lars Dzikus, University of Tennessee

“Knut Rockne, the BCS, and ‘Strength of Schedule’”

11:20-11:55

Discussion

Noon -1pm

Lunch (Medallion)

1:00 -2:00pm

John R. Betts Address- Sam Regalado, California State University, Stanislaus (Medallion)

2:05-3:35pm

Business Meeting (Medallion)

3:45 -

Afternoon on your own: tour of bobsled luge facilities, boat ride on the lake, etc. For more information on options, please see registration materials.

7-9pm

NASSH Film Night (Gold)

Linda Borish, Western Michigan University, “Jewish Women in American Sport, Settlement Houses to the Olympics”

Nancy Bouchier, McMaster University, “The People and the Bay”

Monday, May 26

8:25-10:00am

Session G

Session XXV. Contemporary Issues in Olympic History (Gold)

Moderator: Margaret Groeneveld, Universita Bocconi

8:25-8:45

Elizabeth Hanley, Penn State University

“From Lake Placid to Torino: Figure Skating’s Tarnished Image”

8:45-9:05

Thomas Hunt, University of Texas at Austin

“The End of the Cold War and Olympic Doping Regulation: Towards a Universal Approach, 1990-1999”

9:05-9:25

Megan Popovic & Don Morrow, The University of Western Ontario

“Stomping* the Shadow: The ‘Elevation’ of Snowboarding to the Olympic Pedestal from a Jungian Perspective”

9:25-9:40

Commentator: Kevin Wamsley, University of Western Ontario

9:40-10:00

Discussion

Session XXVI. Sport Journalism (Silver)

Moderator: Philip Suchma, Lehman College

8:25-8:45

Susan Rayl, SUNY-Cortland

“The Sage of Union Hall Street: Romeo L. Dougherty”

8:45-9:05

Dennis Gildea, Springfield College

“A Study of Clair Bee’s Sports Columns in the New York Journal-American, 1950-1951”

9:05-9:25

Ray Gamache, University of Maryland

“(d)Evolution of the Sportscast Highlight Culture: From Peep Show to Pathé to Pastiche”

9:25-9:40

Commentator: Steve Gietschier, The Sporting News

9:40-10:00
Discussion

Session XXVII. Women's Sport Experiences (Bronze)

Moderator: Nancy Bouchier, McMaster University

8:25-8:45
Jaime Schultz, University of Maryland
"The Physical is Political: Women's Suffrage, Pilgrim Hikes, and the Public Sphere"

8:45-9:05
Carly Adams, University of Lethbridge
"Locating the feminine experience: Betty White, and the 1934 British Empire and Women's World Games"

9:05-9:25
Eve Snyder, SUNY- Binghamton
"Libber Over Lobber: The Radical Implications of the 1973 Tennis Battle of the Sexes"

9:25-9:45
Victoria Paraschak, University of Windsor, and Janice Forsyth, University of Manitoba
"Two Eyed Seeing: Histories of Aboriginal Women in Canadian Sport"

9:45-10:00
Discussion

Session XXVIII. Early-Twentieth Century School and College Sport (Lakeview)

Moderator: Ying Wushanley, Millersville University

8:25-8:45
David Barney, Albuquerque Academy
"Two Horses and a Rider named Pratt: Carlisle Indian School Football: Genesis, Evolution, & Exodus"

8:45-9:05
Kim Beckwith, University of Texas at Austin
"Coaching in the Prairie View Interscholastic League: Reflections on Race & Sports in Texas High Schools"

9:05-9:25
Thomas McCabe, Rutgers University (Newark)
"Miracle on High Street: How Soccer Helped Resurrect a Prep School"

9:25-9:45

Jeong-Yeon Lee, Seoul National University, Korea

“A Study on the Historical Notion of Dance Sport and Its Introduction to Elementary School Education”

9:45-10:00

Discussion

10-10:15am Coffee Break (Promenade)

10:15-11:50am Session H

Session XXIX. The 1932 Winter Games at Lake Placid: Controversies and Consequences (Gold)

Moderator: Victoria Paraschak, University of Windsor

10:15-10:35

Peter Hopsicker, Penn State University, Altoona

“‘No Hebrews Allowed’: Anti-Semitism vs. Americanism in the Adirondack Sporting Culture, 1877-1932”

10:35-10:55

John Gleaves, Penn State University

“Manufacturing Skiing: The III Olympic Winter Games at Lake Placid and the Growth of Skiing in the United States during the 1930s”

10:55-11:15

Roland Renson, K.U.Leuven, Belgium

“Count Henri de Baillet-Latour and the Belgian participation in the Lake Placid Winter Olympics 1932”

11:15-11:30

Commentator: Scott Martyn, University of Windsor

11:30-11:50

Discussion

Session XXX. Beyond the Written Word: History through Material Culture, Photographs and Museums (Silver)

Moderator: Maureen Smith, California State University, Sacramento

10:15-10:35

Tara Magdalinski, University College Dublin

“Making History Before it Happens: Olympic Collectibles and Marking Time”

10:35-10:55

Gary Osmond, The University of Queensland, Photographs, Materiality and Sport History: Peter Norman and the 1968 Mexico City Black Protest Salute

10:55-11:15

Murray Phillips, The University of Queensland

“Not just a book on a wall’: Representing the History of Surf Lifesaving through the Australian National Museum”

11:15-11:30

Commentator: Dan Nathan, Skidmore College

11:30-11:50

Discussion

Session XXXI. Sport for Young People, Young People for Sport (Bronze)

Moderator: Cesar Torres, State University of New York Brockport

10:15-10:35

Wray Vamplew, University of Stirling

“Child Work or Child Labour? The Caddie Question in Edwardian Golf”

10:35-10:55

Anne Warner, University of Western Ontario

“ ‘The Realization of the Glorious Dream of Boyhood:’ The Making of Masculinity in Private Ontario Boy’s Camps, 1900-1939”

10:55-11:15

Heather Dichter, University of Toronto

“Developing Youth and Sport: The Creation of Anglo-American Sport Leadership Institutions in Occupied Germany”

11:15-11:35

Fred Mason and Hayley Russell, University of New Brunswick

“Lessons from investigating the past? Reflections on attempting to draw lessons from the history of fitness for youth in Canada”

11:35-11:50

Discussion

Noon-1pm

Lunch (On your own)

1-2pm

Graduate Student Essay (Medallion)

David Lunt, Pennsylvania State University

“The Heroic Athlete in Ancient Greece”

2:10-3:45pm

Session I

Session XXXII. Media/Policy and National Identity Construction (Gold)

Moderator: Darcy Plymire, Ithaca College

2:10-2:30

Bieke Gils, University of Windsor, and Pascal Delheye, Katholieke Universiteit Leuven
Belgium

“Belgian sports performers in a French magazine: An analysis of La Vie au Grand Air (1898-1914)”

2:30-2:50

Francisco Pinheiro, University of Évora

“The role of the sport press in the development of sport in Europe– The Portuguese case and other examples”

2:50-3:10

J. Andrew Ross, University of Western Ontario

“Making Saturday Night Hockey Night: Radio and the Creation of a Canadian Hockey Market”

3:10-3:30

Anthony Church, Laurentian University

“Financing Urban Development Through Sport: An Examination of the Role of Municipalities in the Development of Canadian Sport Policy”

3:30-3:45

Discussion

Session XXXIII. The Olympic Games (Silver)

Moderator: Chuck Korr, DeMontfort University, Leicester, England

2:10-2:30

Norrie Baker, University of Buffalo

“Virtue versus Victory; Amateurism and Competitiveness Reflected in British preparations for the London Olympics of 1948”

2:30-2:50

Chad Carlson, Pennsylvania State University

“Black and White for the Gold: Adolph Rupp, Don Barksdale, and Racial Issues Among the 1948 United States Olympic Basketball Team”

2:50- 3:10

Donald Abelson, University of Western Ontario

“Politics on Ice: The United States, the Soviet Union and a Hockey Game in Lake Placid”

3:10-3:25

Commentator: Thomas Hunt, University of Texas at Austin

3:25 -3:45

Discussion

Session XXXIV. Spectators and Sport Spaces (Bronze)

Moderator: Marion Stell, University of Queensland

2:10-2:30

John McClelland, Victoria College, University of Toronto

“Sports Spectators and (the Lack of) Sports Arenas: From the Middle Ages to the End of the Eighteenth Century”

2:30-2:50

Michel Vigneault, Université du Québec à Montréal

“Evolution of Ice Hockey Arenas: For or against the spectators?”

2:50-3:10

Russell Field, University of Toronto

“ ‘As Much a Part of the Game:’ Hockey Spectators at Maple Leaf Gardens in the mid-1930s”

3:10-3:45

Discussion

Session XXXV. Law and Order: The Reserve Clause: Danny Gardella, John Mackey, and Byron White (Lakeview)

Moderator: Sam Regalado, California State University, Stanislaus

2:10-2:30

Ron Briley, Sandia Preparatory School

“Pushing the Limits of Baseball’s Reserve Clause: The Mexican League Defections and the Danny Gardella Case”

2:30-2:50

Michael E. Lomax, University of Iowa

“Challenging the NFL’s Reserve System: John Mackey v NFL Revisited”

2:50-3:10

Sarah K. Fields, The Ohio State University

“The Curious Career of the ‘Whizzer’: Byron White Revisited”

3:10-3:25

Commentator: Dick Crepeau, University of Central Florida

3:25-3:45

Discussion

3:45-4:00pm

Coffee Break (Promenade)

4:00-5:35pm

Session J

Session XXXVI. A Century of College Athletic Reform (Gold)

Moderator: Bob Trumbour, Penn State University, Altoona

4:00-4:20

Allen Sack, University of New Haven

“Athletic Reform in the New Millennium: A Short History of the Drake Group”

4:20-4:40

Ronald A. Smith, Penn State University

“The Graham Plan and Athletic Reform (1852-1936)”

4:40-5:00

John S. Watterson, James Madison University

“Walter Camp, Gridiron Reformer”

5:00-5:15

Commentator: Larry Gerlach, University of Utah

5:15-5:35

Discussion

Session XXXVII. Fast Train From Clarksville: The Spectacle of Wilma Rudolph (Silver)

Moderator: Sarah Fields, The Ohio State University

4:00-4:20

Rita Liberti, California State University, East Bay

“Wilma’s Home Town Win: Remembering and Forgetting Clarksville’s Racial Past”

4:20-4:40

Jennifer H. Lansbury, George Mason University

“ ‘Where There’s a Wilma’: Invitation to a Sporting Spectacle”

4:40-5:00

Maureen Smith, California State University, Sacramento

“On the Margins of Memory: Ways of Remembering and Forgetting Wilma Rudolph”

5:00-5:15

Commentator: Jaime Schultz, University of Maryland

5:15-5:35

Discussion

Session XXXVIII. Sport and Identity (Bronze)

Moderator: Russell Field, University of Toronto

4:00-4:20

Nick Guoth, Australian National University

“Kangaroos and Dragons: The White Australia Policy and the 1923 Chinese football tour of Australia”

4:20-4:40

Terry Gitersos, University of Western Ontario

“‘Les ‘frogs’ sont menacés’: Media Representations of the Nordiques and Canadiens, 1979-1981”

4:40-4:55

Commentator: Tina Parratt, University of Iowa

4:55-5:35

Discussion

Session XXXIX. The Role of Sport in Schools (Lakeview)

Moderator: Andy Doyle, Winthrop University

4:00-4:20

Caitlin Orth, University of Windsor

“From Opposition to Acceptance: The Evolution of Athletic Scholarships Within the OUA, 1970-2006”

4:20-4:40

Sara Childers, The Ohio State University

“What’s sports got to do with it? Sports, Schooling, and Urban Education”

4:40-5:00

Anthony Weaver, Elon University

“Influence of Historical Factors on Intercollegiate Athletic Department Reclassification”

5:00-5:35

Discussion

7pm – 7:30 Cash Bar (Medallion)

7:30 Banquet (Medallion)