

Indigenous Resurgence, Regeneration, and Decolonization through Sport History

Wednesday, May 23, 2018

Migizii Agamik: Circle Room
10:30-10:45	Opening of the workshop	Opening words: Brian Rice, University of Manitoba
10:45-12:00	Listening to the community: Opening address	Eugene Arcand, Governing Circle, National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation Sponsored by Health, Leisure and Human Performance Research Institute
12:30-1:30	Lunch (Migizii Agamik: foyer)
13:30-15:00	Panel I: Settler Colonialism	John Reid, St. Mary's University: "Space, Environment, and Appropriation: Sport and Settler Colonialism in Mi'kma'ki"
		Michelle Sikes, Pennsylvania State University: "Enduring Legacies and Shifting Identities: The Masculine Origins of the Kenyan Running Explosion"
15:00-15:30	Coffee Break (Migizii Agamik: foyer)
15:30-17:45	Panel II: Resistance & Activism	Craig Fortier, Renison University College & Colin Hastings, York University: "A Field of Dreamers on Stolen Land: Practices of Unsettling on the Recreational Softball Diamonds of Tkaronto"
		Robert Kossuth, Lethbridge University: "Indigenous and Colonial Physical Culture in Lethbridge: Sport, Contact, and the Settlement of Canada's Southwestern Prairie Frontier"
		Gary Osmond, University of Queensland: "Decolonizing Dialogues: Sport, Resistance and Australian Aboriginal Settlements"
17:45-18:00	Reflecting on the day	Christine M. O'Bonsawin, University of Victoria

Thursday, May 24, 2018

National Centre for Truth and Reconciliation: Boardroom
9:00-10:00	Tour of NCTR archival collections	Opening words: Brian Rice, University of Manitoba Kaila Johnston, Research Coordinator, NCTR
10:00-10:30	Coffee break (NCTR)
10:30-12:00	Panel III: Reconciliation, Resurgence, and Moving Beyond Western Historical Sources I	Taylor McKee & Janice Forsyth, Western University: "Witnessing Painful Pasts: Understanding Images of Sports at Canadian Indian Residential Schools"
		Victoria Paraschak, University of Windsor: "# 87: Reconciliation, Sport History and Indigenous Peoples in Canada"
Migizii Agamik: Circle Room
12:15-13:15	Lunch (Migizii Agamik: foyer)
13:15-15:30	Panel IV: Reconciliation, Resurgence, and Moving Beyond Western Historical Sources II	Malcolm MacLean, University of Gloucestershire: "Engaging indigenous epistemologies: historians' sources and Indigenous/Indigenizing Sport History"
		Christine M. O'Bonsawin, University of Victoria: "Free, Prior, and Informed Consent: The Olympic Movement's Legal Responsibilities to Indigenous Peoples in Canada and Beyond"
		Brian Rice, University of Manitoba: "Running from Addiction Caused by War Trauma and Residential School Towards Health and Well-being"
15:30-16:00	Coffee Break (Migizii Agamik: foyer)
16:00-17:00	Listening to the community: Mapping a way forward	Janice Forsyth, Western University

Supported by

